

Paper Publishing Contract

The author is obliged to deliver paper in required form and on defined date and pay a fee for enabling publishing in proceedings.

At once author declares that:

- he is the unique author of the paper and while writing he does not committed any interaction into others authors' copyright laws and that nothing of content of his original copyright law for this paper has not been till this time brought over to other subject,
- the paper is original and all subscribed derivative items are marked and cited,
- third party rights do not obstruct the author with paper disposal,
- the paper does not contain information about facts under state, service, economic or business secrets,
- he is responsible for a damage that may arise in case of false preceding proclamations,
- submitted paper is treated according to editor's instructions,
- since the date of paper takeover he gives approval to its publication.

Institute of Management by University of Žilina in Žilina reserves the right to ask author to make changes in the paper under authority of reviewer's opinions. It is obliged to publish the accepted paper and give to the author the copy of proceedings.